

72 HOUR URBAN ACTION TEAM APPLICATION FORM

72 Hour Urban Action is an international rapid architecture and design festival. Defined by community needs, an extreme deadline, a tight budget and limited space. We invite teams of architects, students, designers, artists and craftspeople to respond to community needs from its public spaces. Selected teams will have three days and three nights to both plan and realize their projects in response to the given missions. Missions will be drawn for each team randomly on launch day.

72 Hour Urban Action will take place in Bat-Yam, Israel as part of the Bat-Yam Biennale of Landscape Urbanism.
